Unfinished Business –

Color Guard

- The Commander will look into whether a local commercial agency could provide specific articles of clothing for the uniform.

Bingo – The Swansea Improvement Center has both the equipment and the license, but did not have the people to operate an event. They are willing to work with the Commander on it. They need to check to see if we can hold a fundraiser on their license.

Raffle – This was also discussed with the Swansea Improvement Center. Their gun raffles actually award a gift certificate to Rural King where the winner can purchase the gun with the certificate. We would need to get a permit to do this.

Messinger Cemetery – TWS promised to have a board put together by the ceremony on 7 December.
